

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS...

MECHANICSVILLE NEWS

Mr. Samuel England, of Wood Street, left during the past week on a business trip to Detroit, Mich., in the interest of the American Locomotive Works.

Miss Nora Farish, who has been spending some time with her parents at Batesville, Albemarle county, has returned to the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. R. Bailey, of Chelsea Hill.

Miss Alma Barnes, who has been ill at her home for some time, is improving.

Miss Mamie Johnson, of Fluvanna county, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gilliam Childress, of the Pike.

Mr. C. H. Sneed, of Halifax county, has returned home after a visit to his daughter, Miss Etta Sneed, of No. 10 Wood Street.

Mr. Woody Patterson had as her guest during the past week her sister, Miss Maud Sheppard, of Farmington.

Little Miss Myrtle Denton still remains quite sick at her home, No. 134 Wood Street.

Miss Florence Sweeney, of Poplar Grove, who has been ill, is greatly improved.

Eliza Bassett and sister, Miss Estelle, have returned home after a pleasant stay with their sister, Mrs. Patterson, of Wood Street.

Mr. W. L. Barnes has returned to his home here, after spending some time with his mother, who is very ill at her home on Church Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, of Covington, Va., who are the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Martin of the Mechanicsville Turnpike.

Miss Grace Cumbley has returned to her home in Lynchburg after a pleasant stay with her aunt, Mrs. Rodgers, of this vicinity.

Mr. George Kirby, who has been so seriously ill at his home on Chelsea Hill for the past two weeks, is greatly improved.

Miss Josie Lane has returned to her home on the Pike after having spent several days with friends at Seven Pines.

Mrs. Dora England and children are visiting Mrs. Cosby, of Church Hill.

Mrs. Janie Lawrence and little daughter, of Charlottesville, Va., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowles of the Mechanicsville Turnpike.

The Episcopal Chapel, which is located on the Bowling Green Turnpike, is in a flourishing condition under the attention of the rector, the Rev. G. Otis Mead, and a prize, which is a silver medal, is offered to the school that attend every Sunday during this year.

Masters Vernon Tuck and Joe Mahanes were among the ones who received prizes this week, both being very bright and active little fellows.

Mr. Mead cordially invites all in the neighborhood to attend this afternoon, as he will address them on behalf of the school.

Considerable alarm has been felt, and is still being felt, in this neighborhood on account of several cases of smallpox, which have appeared in a mild form.

The local health authorities are doing all in their power to prevent a spread of this dreaded malady, and all of the schools and churches have been closed.

Mr. John Westman, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, recently moved from Seven Pines to the Mechanicsville Turnpike.

The quiet suburb of Chelsea Hill was terrorized during the past week by the presence of a mad dog, and a number of canines that snapped at various persons.

It is reported that a dog suffering from rabies attacked other dogs. Much excitement was created among the citizens of the suburb as a result of the mad-dog running at large, and several dogs were killed within the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tyler and little daughter have returned to their home here after a pleasant stay of two weeks with relatives in Gladstone, Va.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gentry, of the Mechanicsville Turnpike, was the scene of a beautiful birthday party a few evenings ago.

The party was given in honor of their daughter, Miss May Gentry. Music and various games were served to while away the time, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Among those present were: Misses Edith, May and Gladys Gentry, Ethel Hutchinson, May Felvey, Marie Gary, Kate Hechler, Blanche Arrington, Corinne Gentry, Irene Ford, Inez Robinson, Lizzie Pace, Edna Jones, Alma Gentry, Abbie Gary, Marion Richardson, Albertson, Messrs. Walter Gentry, Willie White, Edson Gerecke, Allen Alston, John Lewis Gentry, Hunter Hechler, John Valentine, Gentry, John Feilger, Gus Gerecke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gentry assisted their daughters in receiving and entertaining their guests.

Mr. John Collins, of Albemarle county, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bailey, of Chelsea Hill.

Mr. Berry Wright, who was hurt while on a hunting trip some time ago, is better and able to go out again.

BARTON HEIGHTS
Mr. Kimball C. Moores, of Locust Dale Academy, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moores, of Luck Avenue, has returned to resume his studies, and also as physical director.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smith, of North Carolina, have returned to their home after a most delightful visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Meadow Bridge Road.

Mr. G. B. Penney has returned to his home on Lamb Avenue from a business trip to Richmond, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Taylor and family, who have been stopping with his mother, of North Avenue, have left for Mineral City, Va., where Mr. Taylor has accepted a position.

Mr. R. T. McCormick, of Barton Avenue, has returned from a pleasure trip to Washington.

Miss Bettie Price Starling has returned from a visit to relatives in Farmington.

Mr. W. K. Baehle, of Lamb Avenue, has left for Baltimore on business.

Miss Betha Farmer, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Mrs. R. G. Ware, of North Avenue, is now visiting relatives in Richmond.

Miss Agnes S. Hopkins, who has been visiting Mr. C. H. Motley, of North Avenue, has returned.

Mrs. D. J. Gregory, of Lamb Avenue, who has been visiting in Norfolk, has returned home.

Mr. R. T. August, of Monteiro Avenue, after a very delightful visit to Philadelphia, has returned.

Mrs. B. A. Overby, who has been visiting at her home on North Avenue, is improving.

Miss Agnes Luck, who has been visiting at Crump Place, Va., has returned to her home on Virginia Avenue.

Mrs. E. E. Brice, of Lamb Avenue, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Angle, who have been visiting in Washington, North and South Carolina, have returned to their home.

Miss Agnes Thompson, of Suffolk, Va., who has been visiting friends on North Avenue, has returned home.

Miss I. E. Jernode, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. P. Coleman, of Virginia Avenue, has returned to her home in Providence Forge.

Miss Lillian Eubanks, of North Avenue, who has been visiting relatives in Ashland, Va., has returned home.

Miss Bertha Swain, of Bowling Green, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Motley, of North Avenue, for the past two weeks, has returned to her home.

Mr. S. P. Jones, of Luck Avenue, has left for Clifton Forge on business.

Miss Lizzie Folzoy, of North Avenue, after a very delightful visit to her grandparents, Mrs. G. R. Folzoy, of Bon grand, has returned home.

Mrs. Charles A. Nesbitt, of Garland Avenue, has returned as grand matron to the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Fred E. Davidson has returned from a trip to Lester Manor, Va.

Mr. Percy Yarbrough, who has been visiting his parents on Meadow Avenue, has returned to his place of business in Toano, Va.

Mr. John Croys has returned to his home on Virginia Avenue from an extensive trip to the States.

Mrs. Landon Jackson and daughter, who have been spending the week with relatives here, left yesterday for Petersburg.

Mr. Jerry Shelton, of Greene county, Va., is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. S. White, of Ladies Mile Road.

Mr. C. H. Hope, of Locust Dale Academy, is the guest of Mr. Kimball C. Moores, of Luck Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smith, of North Carolina, have returned to their home on North Avenue from a business trip to Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. Howard Harlan, Jr., who has been visiting his parents, of Barton Avenue, has returned to resume his studies at the Randolph-Macon Academy.

FAIRMOUNT NEWS
Mrs. Willie Brown, formerly of Arkansas, has returned to Richmond, where she has resided for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Bowders, who have been traveling some time, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nuckolls, of Fairmount Avenue, during the past week.

Mr. Frank Sherman, formerly of Fairmount, but now residing in Roanoke, Va., was in the city during the week.

Mr. William Shnauff, of Twenty-second Street, has secured a position in Covington, Va., where he will move his family in the near future.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.

Mrs. Forrest Mitchell, her daughter, Miss Ora Mitchell, and little son, Master James Mitchell, are confined to the house by sickness. Another daughter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, slipped on the ice a few days ago and has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Edmonds, of King William county, who has been spending some time here with friends, has returned.

Mrs. Annie Combs, of Manchester, formerly of West Point, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Perkins, of Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. Pinkie Elliott, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Luchard, of Q Street, has returned to her home in King William county.